beautiful books in my collection I can totally recommend - Inthe Springtime of the Year by Susan Hill, a remarkable novel about sudden loss Swimmer in the Secret Sea by William Kotzwinkle and An Exact Replica of a Figment of my Imagination by Elizabeth McCracken these are both about stillbirth, the former an exquisite novella, the latter a stunning memoir and If You Sit Very Still, which is a luminous memoir of loss, violent death and forgiveness by Marian Partington. Possibly most important, they empower students to be actively involved in the processes of their own learning, rather than passively receptive.
