In the last analysis atheism results from the perverted moral state of man and from his desire to escape from God. You are commenting using your Facebook account.

Cadence to Glory: A Novel of the American Revolution

When they get to the spring, they found the water was bitter, and so it was called Marah, which means bitter Exodus Down in verse 14, we learn where this spring is, and what Hagar names it, but as far as I can tell, nobody really knows where the spring is exactly, so the possibility remains that it is the same spring the Israelites come to hundreds of years later when they flee Egypt.
